

Scrap Campaign in Greenbelt Piles Up 35 Tons of Old Metal For First Week; Children Help

About 35 tons of scrap metal and rubber have been collected already in Greenbelt as the salvage campaign swung into full stride by mid-week.

Most of the accumulation is in a heap back of the town nursery near the disposal plant. This stack is 14 feet high, 24 ft. long and 15 ft. wide.

Community Church Has Annual Meeting For Next Thursday

September 24 is one of the important dates in the calendar of the Greenbelt Community Church, the annual meeting of the Church.

"This year, not only has the Church lost heavily by many people being transferred away from Washington, but the Church is feeling the effect of a change in pastorates. Now the Church is beginning to suffer the loss of many who formerly worked in the Church but are now working longer hours for the Government. Many are anxious to know the effect all these things are having upon the Church." Was the statement issued by Rev. Wilmer P. Johnston, in announcing the meeting.

Will Elect Officers

The annual meeting this year will consist of three main features: The reports of the year's work. The pastor and chairmen of the various committee, including the finance and spiritual and social welfare, will make reports.

The planning for the year's work ahead. This will include the election of officers to serve the Church for 1943, the adoption of the revised constitution and plans for the future of the Church. In view of the fact that the community to which this Church is to minister, is growing and due to changed conditions under which many will live, the Rev. Wilmer P. Johnston will be expected to present some new plans for meeting these conditions.

The "Fellowship" dinner which is to be served at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, September 24, 1942, in the Community Building, is one of the social events at which all the members and friends of this Church try to get together. They will sing old community songs, meet old friends and make new ones.

A dinner is to be served by the Guild of the Church, with tickets at 55 cents for adults and 35 cents for children. A free nursery is provided for the evening. All living in Greenbelt are invited, but reservations must be made not later than Sunday night. They may be made by contacting Mrs. Anna Lewis, phone 4221, Mrs. Daniel Neff, phone 4942, or Rev. Wilmer P. Johnston's home. Berwyn 340-M.

Co-op Conference Opens Tomorrow

Four Greenbelt organizations, representing practically all commercial enterprise in town, will send representatives tomorrow and Sunday to the Fifth Annual Cooperative Conference. The program will be held on the campus of American University, Wisconsin and Nebraska Avenues, in Washington.

Registration opens Saturday at 3 p. m. in Hurst Hall. Greenbelt Consumer Services, the Greenbelt Cooperator, the Greenbelt Health Association, and the Greenbelt Federal Credit Union, all cooperative enterprises, will participate in the meetings and exhibits.

Frank J. Lastner, president of Consumer Services, will be chairman of the Sunday afternoon session.

Outstanding items on the agenda are the dinner meeting Saturday evening at 7:45, folk dancing at 9 o'clock; a panel discussion on "Price Control and Consumer Cooperation" at 10 o'clock Sunday morning; picnic dinner on the campus at 12:30 Sunday; and discussion meetings starting Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The meetings are open to all.

War Bond Total In Theater Sales Goes Over $1300

More than $1300 worth of War bonds and stamps have been sold at the Greenbelt Theater which is participating in the motion picture industry's drive to raise $1,000,000 during the month of September.

The management expressed itself as happy to say that this figure is greater than expected, and urges Greenbelt residents to continue their generous investment. The theater has done its part in the war effort by donating $50 toward the purchase of an ambulance.

The sale of bonds and stamps during the first week of the drive totaled $700; $300 of which was subscribed on the first two nights. During the period from September 8 to 15, $600 was sold. The largest single purchase was made by Howard Price, a sailor, who bought four $25 bonds.

Manager Jack Fruchtman, wishes to thank the women who have volunteered to sell the bonds and stamps in the theater lobby. Those who are serving are: Mrs. William Kinsley, Mrs. Helen Cowell, Betty Andrus, Geraldne Andrus, Mrs. Aline Young, Lois DeJaeger, Marylyn Maryn, Mrs. J. Vella, Mrs. L. Schultze, and Mrs. M. Smith. Anyone who can help with this work should register at the theater, inasmuch as additional volunteers are needed.

Resident Turnover Reaches 32.5 Percent

The Family Selection Office under the supervision of Mrs. Mary Jane Kinzer, announces that there has been a 32.5 per cent turn-over of the population in "old" Greenbelt during the year from September, 1941, to September, 1942. In the past the turn-over has been approximately 20 per cent per year.

Two hundred and four new families have moved into the town and eighty-four families transferred from one dwelling to another due to a change in family status.

The turn-over in apartments has been much greater than in the houses and the waiting list of two-member families, who are eligible for apartments, is now comparatively short. This is attributed to the fact that in many of the two-member families applying for apartments both the husband and the wife are working, thus putting them over the income level for entrance. Also, with the increase in birth rate, there are fewer two-member families and more three-member families who require houses rather than apartments.

The general increase in the rate of turn-over is attributed largely to the fact that many men have been taken into the armed service and also as a result of the Federal decentralization plan.

These figures are based on the 885 original units in Greenbelt, none of the defense homes being included.

"Patience" Is Plea Re: Stove Burners

"Patience" is the plea of the maintenance department in answer to the query as to what should be done about electric stove burners which are not working.

Harry Walls, head of the maintenance department, says that every attempt is being made to secure new burners as soon as possible. A priority rating has been given for the burners but more time will be needed before they can be obtained.

Mr. Walls suggests, meantime, that when the Greenbelt housewife experiences trouble with stove burners she contact the maintenance department. An electrician will be sent to test the plate to determine whether it must be replaced or whether repairs will put it back into working condition. In many instances the repair crew can take burners from empty houses or apartments and "keep one jump ahead" of new tenants.

'Varieties' Will Be Second Band Show; October 2 Date Set

The Greenbelt Community Band has scheduled the second of its series of four "uniform shows" for October 2 at the Elementary School auditorium. The new show, "Varieties", follows the ice cream social and band concert held September 6.

The "Varieties" is to be composed of members of the band, their parents and other young people and adults of Greenbelt who are interested in furthering the cause of "THEIR" band. Included in evening's program are the Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Trucksess, John Walker and his "Hill Billy Band", acrobatic solos by Kay Thomas, a surprise "barber shop" band, dancing acts by local girls directed by Mrs. Lillian Mitchell and Mrs. Doris Anderson, and a comedy act by DeJager and Sauls.

$510 Still Needed

Information first given to the Cooperator indicated, as published last week, that about $350 was realized from the ice cream social. This, however, was too good to be true and it is now learned that a profit of $52 was made. This leaves about $150 still to be raised for the needed additional uniforms.

Tickets for the "Varieties" are to be made available at the price of 31 cents plus 4 cents Federal tax and may be purchased from any member of the band or the parents board of the Band.

Hartford S. Downs, who announced the coming show says, "Don't miss this opportunity to help promote this already established civic organization and at the same time enjoy one of the best evening's entertainments of the season."

The band accepted an invitation to play at the Bond Rally at the Hyattsville Theater Thursday evening. The music makers have been very busy these last weeks but, says Mr. Downs, a thing of this type is a must. Last Sunday afternoon the band played for the benefit of the patients at Glendale Sanatorium.

Program Is Big Hit Of Citizen Meeting

The Citizens Association's first meeting of the season opened to the tune of "God Bless America," "Dixie," "Oh Susanna" and other songs accompanied by Walter J. Slomb, jr., on the organ.

The executive committee of the Citizens Association was asked to investigate the use of the gymnasium for the season. One citizen expressed the hope that if the gymnasium could only be opened one or two nights a week it would be open to all men of Greenbelt instead of one particular club which has been the practice for the last season, according to reports.

Stanley Ostler, president of the Citizens Association, will appoint a transportation committee to be patterned after the old committee of last year. Its duties will be to bring riders and drivers together and work cooperatively with the Transportation Exchange in the Cooperator.

After the business session a program, planned by Mrs. Evelyn Cooper, Mrs. Allen Arness and other members of a new entertainment committee, was a "huge success". Master of Ceremonies Radinsky pulled "Truth and Consequences" out of his magic bag and flung questions at ill-fated persons selected from the audience. Those participating voiced the objection that they did not have a chance at anything but the consequence, but audience and participants alike responded, "It was great fun—let us do this again."

Those who were not worried by the tasks of the day and frolic of the evening stayed for a period of folk and square dancing.

Some expressed the hope that more such evenings as this would take place soon. The entertainment committee promised more at the next meeting, the first Monday of October.

Defense Council Receives Final Appointments

Appointing Cy Turner, Harry Bates, Fred De Jager, John Ahaesy and Elmer Nagle to the new Defense Council, the Town Council in its meeting Monday night, September 14, completed the roster of this advisory body which directs the organization and policies of the Greenbelt Civilian Defense Corps. The other members of the Defense Council, who were appointed previously, are D. R. Steinle, Thomas Freeman, Joseph L. Rogers and Mrs. Leon Benefiel.

26 Arrests Reported

Twenty-six arrests were made by the Department of Public Safety during the month of August, according to the department's report to the Council. In addition, 26 traffic warnings and 17 non-traffic warnings were issued. Of the arrests, seven, the largest single type, were for speeding; four were for swimming in the lake; and one was for disorderly conduct. It was necessary to issue 10 warnings for the wearing of shorts in the Shopping Center. A total of $88.50 was forfeited in Town fines and costs and $38.90 in State fines and costs.

Adult Education Classes Still Open

The first meetings of the adult education classes were held Monday evening with courses in typing, woodwork, Spanish and sewing proving attractive to the largest number of people. Shorthand, nutrition, public speaking and standard first aid also drew promising groups. All classes did not have the required 15 people present but it is expected that additional registrations will be received.

Miss Aileen Williams will teach classes in shorthand and typing; Mr. Ben O. Sheldon, woodwork; Mrs. Marion Moore, standard first aid; and Mr. Milton Wiksell, public speaking. Final registrations will be received next Monday and instructors for sewing, nutrition, and Spanish will be assigned then if a sufficient number of people show interest in those classes.

Public Health Nurse Opens New Office

Mrs. Frances Stauffer, public health nurse of Greenbelt, has moved into her new quarters at 2-A Gardenway and is announcing her office hours. From 8 to 8:45 a. m., 12 noon to 1 p. m., and 3:30 to 4:30 each week day Mrs. Stauffer will be in her office. She will make her home calls from 10 to 12 a. m. and from 1 to 3:30 p. m.

Every Tuesday at 9 a. m. the immunization clinic will be held in Mrs. Stauffer's office and the prenatal classes will meet as usual at 2 p. m. Tuesdays. Mothers are invited to bring their babies to be weighed at 4 p. m. on Tuesdays or Wednesdays.

Mrs. Stauffer is organizing a Red Cross home nursing class to be conducted Wednesday afternoons at 2:15 o'clock beginning September 30. Interested persons are invited to register at 2-A Gardenway now.

Dr. William M. Eisner is asking that all mothers watch their children closely for sore throat and colds. "These two symptoms are fore-runners of all communicable diseases and a day out of school for a cold may often prevent an epidemic of some contagious disease or a case of influenza or pneumonia," warns the doctor.

Street Dancing Again Tonight

The Recreation Department's new toy, street dancing in the shopping center plaza, was well received by a large and enthusiastic gathering last Saturday evening.

Ben Goldfaden announces that there will be a return engagement tonight, a half hour later than last week, 8:30 to 10:30. This later hour was set for the benefit of the many young people who could not get down until after band practice had finished.

A few new records have been added, some frisky and some more sedate, to hold the appeal to all ages. There is no charge.

Any Scrap Today?

We are off to an amazing start in the salvage of metal and rubber scrap. Most of the 35 tons accumulated in this first week comes from the woods and from the shops here. It is a grand showing, and no one will expect to see the same amount brought in next week or any of the weeks ahead.

We must keep those weeks ahead well in mind, however, for as Commander Rysticken has told us, this is not a one-week drive. Yes, clean up every piece of idle metal and rubber today. Put it in the bin at the Shopping Center, or if it is too heavy, call the town administration office. A truck will call for anything you cannot carry.

After this week the bins will be at the Service Station, waiting to receive Junior's broken tricycle or a broken rubber band. Nothing made of metal or rubber is too small. No cans are being collected here, but everything else goes. We are not doing this for money, so we will not mind the time our little extra effort may take. We are going to remember today and everyday for the duration that by playing junkman we can help bring the war to an early victory against the Axis governments.

Whaddya Know, Joe?

Well, I do know this—that Greenbelt is America's No. 1 town for clubs. I was talking to a man 'way out in South Dakota once and I said I lived in Greenbelt and he said, "Oh, is that so? I know about Greenbelt. That's the place where a new club is formed every time three people get together." Now, I don't know how true that ever was, or how he found about it at all, but I do know that Greenbelt has offered mighty fine opportunities for group expression. And still does, although the war has taken much of our leisure time and given us a lot more to think about than bridge or chess. It's a pretty nice way to relax, though, in these gasless evenings—team up with a few other folks who are interested in the same things you are. I'm sure there's a bridge club going, now. Maybe more than one, or a dozen. If you like bridge, why not find out? Or start one of your own. I don't believe there's a chess club, but I bet I could toss a handful of gravel into any Greenbelt crowd and come out with 16 bruised chess players close on my heels. Why not find out who likes to play the royal game and have an evening now and then?

And even if you don't care for group relaxation, don't own a camera or a bag of marbles, the town is bristling with civic organizations which would welcome fresh blood. (The town does not boast a local chapter of the National Ghouls Association. I refer to new ideas, new members, new brain and brawn, when I mention fresh blood.) For instance, the Citizens' Association of which you are a member—oh, yes, you are. You live here, don't you?—had its first fall meeting last Monday night and got off to a fine start. Besides handling with dispatch its business, it took time off for a little fun. I bet it doubles the attendance at the next meeting. Its meeting date is easy to remember—first Monday in the month, Auditorium, 8:15 p. m., and earlier if you like to sing.

Like to shoot? Ben Rosenzweig, phone 4496, can tell you all you want to know about the Gun Club. Nice range, within walking distance of the Center; a year's share in a rifle or pistol for a $1.00 membership fee; instruction if you need it, and by experts. Take a walk over to the range, straight out Crescent toward the Lake until the turn-off to the Disposal Plant where you turn right and keep going until you see the Gun Club shack, any nice Saturday or Sunday and have a talk with the chap in charge. Ten to one you'll leave there a full-fledged member, with the right to shoot any time you feel like it.

If you have ever worked with the Girl Scouts and would like to lead a troop, do come up to Mrs. Lillian Mitchell's house, 3-B Eastway, at 7:30, tonight. Mrs. Braden, director of the Greenbelt Girl Scouts and member of the Prince Georges County Council, is going to speak regarding this field of activity. If you haven't done anything of this kind, but think you might like it, come anyway. I think there's even a course in Scout leadership in the offering.

Do you spend your spare time crouching over a dew-bespangled day lily, trying to get a new slant? Do you trail your young hopefuls around trying to catch a new pose, unposed? In other words, are you a shutter-snapper? If so, the Camera Club meeting, September 23, at 3-A Parkway, is right up your alley. And what's more, they'll be mighty glad to welcome you as a new member or even as an innocent by-stander. The things they offer you in print criticism, slide exhibits, classes in home movies, contests and exhibits are hard to beat.

If you crave to help with any of the Civilian Defense units and are just waiting for an invitation, here it is. There's not a single unit that can't use you. Just pick out the one that you are best suited for, pick up the phone, call Phil Wexler publicity man for CD, phone 5368 and say, "Here I is, all ready and willin'." Don't nobody want dis one of God's chillun?" and you'll find out.

In case you haven't had first aid, there are three classes starting now. One advanced and two standard; taught by holders of Red Cross instruction certificates, and well worth your time. Even if bombs never fall on Greenbelt, Junior can still fall off the porch roof or down the basement steps.

If I haven't hit on any activity this week that interests you, drop a question in the Cooperator box in the Drug Store; through the letter slot at the Cooperator office; mail it at the post office or come up with it yourself. Address it, WHADDYA KNOW, JOE? and if I don't know, I'll find out for you.

Community Church

"The Measure of Human Responsibility" is the theme chosen by the Reverend Wilmer Pierce Johnston, pastor of the Community Church, for his sermon Sunday.

The church service is held in the Auditorium at 11 a. m. All living in Greenbelt and not attending other churches are cordially invited by the pastor to worship God with the Community Church.

The Church School will meet at 9:30 a. m. with classes for all ages. Emphasis is placed upon the adult classes.

At 6 p. m. the first meeting of the high school group will be under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Irving and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevens and all young people of the freshman and sophomore high school classes are invited.

At 7 p. m. the Junior Church, now under the sponsorship of Mrs. R. A. Sauls and her corps of junior workers, will meet in the economics room.

At 7:30 p. m. a special called meeting of the church with the officers and teachers of the Church School at the pastor's study, 8-B Parkway, will elect officers for the Church School for the coming year.

Thursday evening at 6:30 a fellowship dinner will precede the Annual Meeting of the Church. No midweek meeting will be held this week.

Friday evening at 8 o'clock the regular weekly choir rehearsal will be held in the music room. All interested in singing with the choir are invited to contact Walter J. Slocumb, Jr. at 5-D Parkway or at the time of rehearsal.

Referring to recent letters "To the Editor" in the Cooperator, Rev. Johnston says "The chimes are broadcast each Sunday morning as a community service. Many who approve 'the chimes' have responded by letters, phone calls, and some by contributions to help pay for new records. Any others who would like to help in a financial way may do so by sending their contributions directly to me, by dropping them on the plate Sunday morning marked 'for chimes', or by leaving them with Mrs. F. H. Donoghue at the Variety Store."

OUR NEIGHBORS

It really seems that nearly all of our "early settlers" are moving away from Greenbelt. Robert C. Howie, well-known custodian of the Elementary School, left Monday for the U. S. Marine Base at Parris Island, South Carolina. The school children had an assembly program in his honor, and Rev. Johnston paid tribute to him in church last Sunday. We don't know who will show us the movies in the Auditorium after this. It was always "Howie".

Les Atkins, another old-timer and former Health Association secretary, is moving with his family this week to Bladensburg.

This week has been a "goodbye Greenbelt, hello college" for several of our recent high school graduates. Among the former local students leaving for out-of-town schools are: Lyon Buck, Leroy Clarke and Blake Palmer to High Point College in North Carolina; William Dodson to F and M College, Pennsylvania; Rosalie Poston to Bethany College in Virginia; Janet Wilde to Rhode Island State; Eva Bryant to Hood Women's College in Frederick. Mary Jean McCarl and June Donghue will attend the University of Maryland; Earl Morgan, Jeanne Provost and John Bozcek are studying engineering at the Capitol Radio Institute in Washington.

A farewell "spaghetti party" was given last week for Mrs. James V. Conway who is leaving October 1 to join her husband in California. Mrs. Milton Carson of 7-A Crescent Road and other friends sponsored the party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor of 1-A Northway have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Miller of Burlington, Vermont. Mr. Miller is the brother of Mrs. Taylor. Lester Zirkle of Stroudsburg, Virginia was a recent guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carson.

David Maryn, who had been visiting his brother Samuel Maryn at 58-M Crescent Road, was inducted into the Army Labor Day.

Lt. Lyman Woodman, remembered by many Greenbelters, is now assistant commandant of the Army Air Corps Statistical School, operated as a part of the Harvard Business School. Mrs. Woodman is living with the children at Dover, Massachusetts.

Harold Uhrig, 16-C Parkway, recently passed the Maryland bar examination and will be admitted to the court in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnes returned this week from a two-week honeymoon in Muskogee, Oklahoma. Mrs. Barnes is the former Doris Bates of 13-F Ridge Road. Mrs. Morton Smith left Tuesday for a few weeks' vacation in Indiana.—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ostler, jr., just returned from a two-week vacation in Saginaw, Michigan.

Stanleigh Inn Nine To Play Shamrocks For Final Meeting

Blair Hamel will bring his pace-setting Stanleigh Inn, nine to Braden Field Sunday, for the final league meeting between the Shamrocks and his fine team.

In previous contests the Riverdale clan defeated Greenbelt two times to one. Big Johnny Flynn holds two wins, one over Lanny Birch by a 6-1 score, and one over Ernie Boggs two weeks ago by a close 5 to 4 score. Ernie Boggs was in great form when he shaded "Hop" Clark late in the first half in a 2 to 1 thriller, for the Shamrock's only decision over the Hamelmens.

The locals are riding high after blasting Armstrong-Roney twice last week and hope to even the season's dual with our neighbors. Game time is as usual 3 p. m.

Greenbelt Brownie Troop Starts Fall Program

Greenbelt's Brownie Troop No. 35 began its fall program with a meeting on Monday at the Elementary school. Practically all of the troop except those who are now intermediate Girl Scouts showed up, while there were several new faces present too.

Mrs. Shirley R. Levine, former assistant leader to Mrs. George Panagoulis and now leader, was accompanied by Mrs. Josephine Ramsdell who formerly had a Brownie troop in Lewiston, Maine. Mrs. Ramsdell is expected to organize another troop, as there are more girls who want to become Brownies than can be successfully organized in one group.

Mrs. Levine also announced that more leaders and assistant leaders are needed in Greenbelt, stating that many girls were turned away last season for lack of leadership.

One Year Ago

(From The Cooperator, September 19, 1941.)

Allen D. Morrison was the only one of 14 candidates elected as councilman; 8 others to be elected a week later—Greenbelt Post 136 of the American Legion sponsored its annual barbecue and dance—Adult education classes started—Greenbelt Citizens Association inaugurated a discount buying plan for members—Gross receipts from local recreational activities showed an increase of $592.07 over the same period of 1940—Local Red Cross drive carried on by block captains—Members of the Prince Georges County Medical Society endorsed the erection of a county hospital—Local residents attended the Fourth Annual Co-op Conclave, sponsored by the District of Columbia Cooperative League—An arbitration board was being formed to review the dispute between the former board of directors of the Health Association and Dr. Silagy—Pupils of Elementary School held their first vacation assembly to start school year.

Poco At Bat

By BILL MOORE

A lot of what has gone under the bridge since Bill Therrell last sported the Shamrock colors. He batted .404 three years ago and then moved to Mississippi.

Back from the Southland, his family living in the same Greenbelt home they once left, the old reliable Therrell proved that his batting eye is still sharp as ever. Bill banged out three doubles and a single in the pair of games Sunday.

When Ernie Boggs shut out Armstrong-Roney with a solitary single it was the first time since June 21 that the fire-baller won a game. Six contests have gone against Ernie in that time, two 8 hitters, a 6 hitter, a 4 hitter, and two 3 hitters. His Shamrock teammates couldn't have been very helpful!

Who remembers when Councilman Bauer took things in his own hands and presented the Reps with a much needed win during the late successful softball season? That 4 run homer was the noisiest hit Greenbelt ever witnessed! And big George was beside himself with merriment as he tumbled over home plate.

The Shamrock's startling short-stop Gerald Geyer is back from his Wisconsin vacation. He got in a couple of ball games with his old cronies in the Industrial league, and got 4 for 9 with his mace.

Steve Comings is a reformed man now. The blasting courtster has had to have his racket restrung but one time in the last month.

Wayne Davis played a lot of second base with a bum knee last Sunday. Wayne twisted his knee, during infield practice, in such a manner as to cause a temporary dislocation of the joint, and very painful. Makes the second time this summer and the slugging Davis shows a large bit of grit and team spirit in playing at all.

Things we would like to see: Julius Andrus get three or four hits against Johnny Flynn, of Stanleigh Inn, day after tomorrow. Ditto Mickey McDonald. This pair of ball-hawks have had a terrible time manufacturing base-hits this season.

Leroy Clark and Ann Martone had to forfeit the scheduled mixed doubles match to the Blacketts. Ann is just back in town after a few days away and Leroy has gone off to school. Tough way for the defending champions to bow out of the Tennis tourney.

Sunday will give local ball fans their first chance to size up the new outfielder, Joe Ciomei. They won't have to size "up" very far because Joe is one of these pint sized speedsters. He carries a potential "big" bat.

Here's that third strike again.

Shamrocks Wallop Largo Nine In Two Games, 9-0 and 12-0; Boggs, Breed and Therrell Outstanding

The Shamrocks suddenly came to life against slight resistance from Armstrong-Roney and clubbed the laddies from Largo in both games of a double-header at Greenbelt last Sunday by scores of 9-0 and 12-0, to take a new lease on life in their quest for third place in the league standings. Both games were seven innings by mutual agreement.

Pottery Classes are Changed

Pottery classes in the adult education program will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings instead of Monday and Wednesday as originally announced, M. L. Taylor said yesterday. These classes are held at 7:30 in the basement of 21 Parkway.

Big Guns Blast

During the long afternoon the Shamrock stickmen, paced by the nonchalant Bill Therrell, sprayed a couple dozen base hits, of various lengths, all over the Braden Field terrain. The veteran Therrell pumped out three doubles and a single in seven tries.

Curt Barker, playing his last games before leaving for Navy indoctrination at Dartmouth, garnered two hits and three runs in each game.

Ben Goldfaden and Bill Moore rifled out five hits apiece to add to the visitor's discomfiture.

Hurling Heroic

While all this slugging display was taking place a pair of Greenie hurlers, named Jim Breed and Ernie Boggs, were chucking themselves a two-hitter and one-hitter, respectively. The big Texan whiffed eight and walked one in the opener, and the blond, big game hunter from West Virginia fanned nine in the night-cap.

That One Hit!

The lone bingle Boggs allowed was tough for the little right-hander to take. He was within one out of a perfectly pitched ball game. Not one man had reached first base and two men were out in the last inning when "Lefty" Greenwell dumped a "Texas Leaguer" into short left field to cheat Boggs of Prince Georges County League Hall of Fame honors.

"Lost" Child Found

We couldn't very well say that little Terry Wiran, 21-C Ridge Road, got lost Monday night; he knew right where he was. The difficulty seemed to arise from the fact that his parents didn't share his knowledge. The result? Police were called, meetings interrupted, and a searching party was formed. For an hour and a half Greenbelt went on a boy hunt.

It all started out innocently. Mr. and Mrs. Wiran started through an underpass with Terry on his tricycle in front of them. When they reached the other end Terry had disappeared. A search of the immediate vicinity proved fruitless. Officer Dove was contacted, a searching party organized and the hunt was on.

In the meantime Terry had gone to visit friends of his, the Magees at 2-A Southway. Mr. and Mrs. Magee, possibly having had previous experience, returned the small vagrant to his home only to find one one there. Not wishing to leave the young fellow alone, the Magees took Terry back with them.

Please DO NOT ask "Information" for numbers which ARE listed in the directory

THE demands of war on the telephone system in and around Washington can only be met by using every trained operator and all available telephone facilities to handle today's volume of calls. It is important, therefore, that our "Information" service be limited to supply numbers which can not be found in the directory.

Our records show that more than half of the calls to "Information" are unnecessary. They are requests for numbers which are listed in the telephone directory. This is a preventable waste of telephone time and telephone facilities. May we have your cooperation?

Thank you.
